

About Planning

Published on The City of Independence Oregon - Official Website (<http://www.ci.independence.or.us>)

About Planning

The Independence Planning Department handles all zoning, subdivision, site design review, partition and other land use requests. The department also works to update the city's master plans and complete long range planning projects to ensure that Independence develops in a way that is thoughtful and compatible with the existing character of the community and the desires of its residents.

Source URL (retrieved on 2015-03-05 03:57): <http://www.ci.independence.or.us/planning/about-planning>