

Monthly Thoughts from the Mayor

Every month, the Mayor collaborates with city staff to write an article about Independence. The story is published in the Salem Statesman Journal and frequently highlights the good qualities of the community and its residents. From volunteerism to entrepreneurship to a "can-do" attitude, the Mayor likes to feature stories that show how Independence is taking responsibility for its own future and working together to make things happen.

Browse through the current articles and the archives. They're all listed in the sidebar to the right.

There are some great stories to be told about Independence.

Source URL (retrieved on 2015-03-06 12:07): <http://www.ci.independence.or.us/ed/monthly-thoughts-mayor>