Big Art for Little Hands: Every Picture Tells a Story

Meeting: Big Art for Little Hands: Every Picture Tells a Story

Date/Time: Tue, Apr 15th 4:00pm - 5:00pm

Location: Library Meeting Room

This program is for children in 2nd through 6th grades. Class size is limited. Please pre-register for this program by calling the library at 503-838-1811.

April 15th (2nd-6th grades) Every Picture Tells a Story. One person will hold a card with an image of a famous painting and will describe it in detail to their partner, who hasn't seen it. From the description only, the partner will make a painting of the image. When the picture is done, the two will be compared. Each participant will have a chance to both describe a painting and to paint. The final project will be the teacher describing a picture for everyone to paint.

Instructor: Robert Tomlinson. Artist, Arts Administrator and Teacher.

This program is made possible by a grant from the Polk County Cultural Coalition.
